

APPLICATION FOR ACCOUNT ACCESS AT 1STEQUITYBANK.NET

This application serves as a request to enable the individual person or business listed here to access selected account information via 1st Equity Bank’s website. It is understood that a JavaScript capable web browser using 128-bit encryption is required to access this information. Full transfer access between accounts will be assumed unless added restrictions are requested. You can access any 1st Equity Bank account for which you are a signer. No transfer access will be allowed out of an account that requires two or more signatures. There is no charge to access account information or to transfer funds between accounts. The customer is responsible for the security of the access password. Passwords should never be shared between users. Joint account signers should still have separate access codes. An initial user name and password will be issued upon receipt and verification of this application. The password must be changed during the first on-line session. Primary access to 1st Equity Bank’s Internet location is <http://www.1stequitybank.net/>.
